

Test Cases	Steps	Expected Result
User is at landing page	Clicks on 'Start' button	Landing page changes to map
Search for location based on address on the map page	Clicks on search bar	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Shows locations related to the user's input under the map's search bar 2) Map zooms in to desired area, and markers will appear. Upon clicking on markers, user will see name and address
Geolocation	User clicks on geolocation button	User is shown his current location.
Prerequisite: User has entered location and clicked search bar
Choose specific location based on results generated under search bar	Clicks on individual result under the search bar	Map zooms in to specific location from the results list
Choose layers based on what the user wants to see	User clicks on the logo of each category	Layers appear and disappear according to user's toggling
Previous results clear to show new results	User inputs a different location and clicks search button	Previous results clear to show new results
Form validation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) User clicks on question mark icon 2) User inputs information and clicks submit 	Form appears. User's inputs are validated, and if the input does not meet the criteria, an error message appears to inform the user of minimum requirements.